Approved

OpenJDK Vulnerability Group discussion

- EF has signed 2 governance agreements - Now waiting on Oracle for their countersignature
- Documents were sent on the same day the marketplace was launched

Temurin hardware loaner programme

- Draft doc “Temurin Compliance Eclipse Foundation System Loaner program”
 - Use general inventory of older systems where possible (4 located - 2 mac, 2 Lenovo), otherwise purchase new ones
 - EF TC System Loaner Agreement (TCSLA)
 - User needs Adoptium TCK Participating Agreement on file with EF
 - Request via EF IT GitLab issue

EclipseCon meeting room request

- Ability for broader WG community to get together from some groups
- Limited room available, maximum room size of 18 people. May not have A/V capability
- Let people know via the form if you have specific requirements -there are , Wednesday, Thursday

Marketplace

- Launch has been a great success – Azul and Alibaba now close to inclusion
- Adoptium is now the most successful project at Eclipse in terms of visitors. 5M page views, 77k unique visitors, 188Gb bandwidth use ... (And driving up the netlify costs)
- Continued drum beat of press release info
- Last Monday’s call - marketplace members were asking about analytics on the web site
 - Will be shared but need to decide whether to include on the external dashboard (probably not)
 - Do we share each members’ data with all other members
 - Paul to discuss with Mike regarding potential options
- Do we have Geographic data for the Temurin downloads?
 - Yes on the main Adoptium site - need to check and see if we have it on the marketplace too
 - AGENDA ITEM FOR TIM NEXT WEEK: What analytics that we are gathering?

A.O.B.

- Jan has been in contact with <https://www.servicetrace.com/> as a potential TCK automation tool
