The Eclipse Foundation Overview Page

The Eclipse Foundation is a non-profit corporation formed to advance the creation, evolution, promotion, and support of the Eclipse Platform. The Foundation also plays a key role in fostering the growth of the Eclipse open source community and its ecosystem of complementary products and services.

You can learn more about the structure and mission of the Eclipse Foundation by reading our formal governance documents. These documents explain how the foundation operates.

Build and Test Automation for Plug-ins and Features
Markus Barchfeld (Zuehlke Engineering) May 29, 2005

Eclipse offers the possibility to build plug-ins automatically outside the Eclipse IDE, which is called "headless build". Eclipse itself is built headless and since Eclipse is an assembly of plug-ins, this feature is also available for any other plug-in. Although the set up of automatic building and testing requires only a couple of files, it can be tedious work to do nonetheless.... more>

Using OpenGL with SWT
Bo Majewski (Cisco) April 15, 2005

OpenGL is a vendor-neutral, multi-platform standard for creating high-performance 2D and 3D graphics. Hardware and software implementations exist on various operating systems, including Windows, Linux and MacOS. OpenGL may be used to render simple 2D charts or complex... more>
